Our Second Gigantic Mill End Sale

To be Opened at Our Store, Saturday, July 29, 1899, for One Week

You all must remember our FIRST "MILL END" SALE. Mr. Lockhart, who owns, controls and personally directs this Marvellous Merchandise Movement, has built its reputation on confidence and on honor. It stands erect upon facts which are as solid as the rock Gibraltar. (WITHOUT WHICH A DRY GOODS PRINCE COULD NOT SUCCEED.) There are thousands of yards of calicoes, ginghams, linens, percales, dimities, cotton, tickings, silesias, cambrics, linings, colored and black dress goods, towelings, laces, ribbons, etc., etc., all fresh from the mills—TO BE SOLD AT ACTUAL MILL COST. You will never know what "MILL END" COST means unless you come to this sale, for this advertisement simply gives you an inkling. THE HALF CANNOT BE TOLD.
